Leadership and Management Subscription Refresh

Create stronger managers across your organization with leadership and management training focused on motivating and engaging employees in the modern workplace. With this subscription, teach managers how to unite their employees around a shared vision, make high stakes decisions in the moment, cultivate a positive, outcome-oriented culture, and develop the systems needed to effectively manage team priorities.

Leadership & Management subscribers will automatically receive the subscription refresh at the October '20 Release with the following additions:

- New topics:
 - TED Ideas into Action: Leading at All Levels
- New CSOD Originals Content:
 - Empowering Minds with Liggy Webb: A nanocoaching series for leaders and managers who want to empower their teams to become more resilient, curious, flexible, creative, and kind (what Liggy calls 'Mindfit'). Liggy motivates and inspires learners to prepare their teams for the unprecedented challenges they face in a rapidly changing world.
- New Grovo Content:
 - Made for Now Sponsorship: Made for Now is a new series from Grovo. Sponsorship is a way to be a workplace ally. It's a set of actions that you can take to help other people advance in their careers. Through Grovo's Sponsorship courses, you'll learn how you can invest your influence in others and have a major impact right now.
- New Courses:

Professional Skills Subscription Refresh

Build stronger communicators, strategic thinkers, and higher functioning teams across the organization with professional skills content focused on the business savvy skills that every employee needs. With this subscription teach employees how to communicate effectively (both internally and with customers), work well in teams, stay productive, and manage their own career development.

Professional Skills subscribers will automatically receive the subscription refresh at the October '20 Release with the following additions:

- New topics:
 - TED Ideas into Action: In addition to consuming TED's library of courses, learners will be given actionable activities with each course, allowing them to apply the knowledge they have learned.
 - CyberU Wellness Courses: Learn everyday yoga and meditative activities that you can easily do in the office.
- New CSOD Originals Content:
 - H-Files: Project Management courses for learners who are new to the topic, with courses on agreeing on a project's goals, planning for project risks, and avoiding micromanagement.
- New Grovo Originals Content:
 - Returning to Work Part 2: As we learn the latest on COVID-19 and more workplaces begin to open, employees and organizations need information on safe practices for returning to work. Learn how to create safer meetings, keep your distance from others, and monitor your own health with this new series from Grovo.
 - Remote Work Updates: What happens when working from home is not a flexible option for employees, but rather a necessity due to office closures? Grovo addresses the expectation and needs of working from home when the situation necessitates it with this update to their remote work courses.
 - Customer Focus: Learners need to understand why customer focus is a skill needed for every role regardless of where they fit into the larger organization. By the end of this curriculum, learners will be able to define customer focus, build a customer journey map, and be able to make customer-centric decisions.
